

Rossford Exempted Village Schools

Areas of Identification	Grade Levels	Service Setting	Additional Information
Creative Thinking Ability	K-12	Cluster grouping in general education classroom	No gifted education services are available for creative thinking ability, unless the student is also identified as superior cognitive ability or specific academic areas in reading and/or math. See below for services in the areas.
Superior Cognitive Ability and/or Specific Academic Ability in Reading and/or Math	3-5	Cluster grouping in general education classroom push-in with gifted intervention specialist	Students identified as gifted in the areas of superior cognitive, creative thinking, and/or specific academic areas in reading and/or math during 2nd grade or later are served in the GEARS program. Students are cluster grouped in reading and math. A gifted intervention specialist co-teaches in the math class 3 days a week. Students participate in small-group work 45 minutes a week for problem solving, STEM, leadership skills, and personal interest projects.
Superior Cognitive Ability and/or Specific Academic Ability in Reading or Math	6-8	Cluster grouping in general education classroom	Students identified with superior cognitive and/or specific academic in reading are placed in an advanced ELA class. Students identified with superior cognitive and/or specific academic in math are placed in an advanced math class.
Specific Academic Ability in Science or Social Studies	6-8	N/A	No gifted education services are available for specific academic in science or social studies.
Superior Cognitive Ability	9-12	AP and College Credit Plus	Services are available for students identified with superior cognitive ability through participation in AP and CCP courses in the student's academic area of strength and/or interest.
Specific Academic Ability: Reading, Math, Science, or Social Studies	9-12	AP and College Credit Plus	Services are available for students identified with specific academic ability through participation in AP and CCP courses in the student's academic area of strength and/or interest.
Visual and Performing Arts Dance, Drama, Music, and Visual Arts	K-12	N/A	No gifted education services are available for visual and performing arts dance, drama, music, and visual arts..

Rossford Exempted Village Schools