

We are hopeful that your child's week at Camp Michindoh will be the best possible experience. Therefore, we are asking for your cooperation. Below is a list of basic rules and expectations concerning our trip that we will be discussing. You can help reinforce these points by also discussing them at home with your child.

- 1. Use appropriate language
- 2. Respect the counselors and cabin rules
- 3. Cooperate with cabin partners
- 4. Be polite enough to allow the staff to teach
- 5. Use self-discipline
- 6. Have a positive attitude; enthusiasm; be willing to take responsibility, build cabin spirit
- 7. Be mannerly and polite at meals
- 8. Use good common sense in adverse weather; dress appropriately, avoid wet hair, stay dry
- 9. Follow our Camp Michindoh rules as well as the policies established by the Michindoh staff and regular school rules
- 10. Have respect for Camp and personal property

Students who do not follow these guidelines are subject to loss of privileges and/or could be sent home.
